Winners are selected by public vote online, providing true recognition that reflects the hard work and dedication exhibited by staff. “The most coveted awards are the global property of the year awards,” says Jana Stoman, Executive Manager of The World Luxury Awards, “many factors play a part in determining these top winners – brand, location and overall guest satisfaction as fed back via online reviews, amongst other criteria.”

Peter Pela, CEO and Owner of Tall Ship Adventures said “We are over the moon to receive these awards that truly puts the Royal Albatross on the world stage as an international attraction, right here in Singapore. Our team has put their heart and soul into making the Royal Albatross into a unique dining venue, so it's incredibly rewarding to be independently recognized by such an esteemed platform”.

Michael Hunter-Smith, Marketing Director at The World Luxury Awards said, “We congratulate this year's winners. True luxury is not easily attained. It takes highly efficient and dedicated staff who are willing to go the extra mile and stop at nothing to ensure that every guest feels cared for and that no challenge goes unresolved.
